

K Love serves me as a resident of the local community by spreading the good word to my friends about listening to this radio station. It helps me get through the day sometimes. The effect the local community would have would be very negative. People in the community rely on this music and the words of the people that work on the radio. I believe that the service provided by love is in the public interest because of the constant positive feedback it gives that other radio stations do not.